

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8/16/1983

Many of you are already aware of the incident that occurred yesterday at the Continental Championship Wrestling event at Birmingham's Boutwell Auditorium. For those unaware, the sneaky and inscrutable "man" from the Orient, the debuting Jota, became overwhelmed with savagery and bit the head off of the pet chicken of Mr. Joe Scroggins of Hueytown. Had his disgusting display ended there, it would have been a regrettable but minor chapter in the great history of wrestling in the area. However, Jota went on to spit that head into the gray, scrotumesque visage of guest timekeeper Bear Bryant, upon which the great man immediately set to vomiting a full fifth of Canadian Club onto the already blood- and tobacco- slick floor. In his attempt to flee his humiliation, Mr. Bryan slipped in his own vomit and piss and shit and the aforementioned other fluids. He died instantly and hilariously. As a result, Continental has been banned from Birmingham for the foreseeable future.

To compound this already unthinkable tragedy, it is with great sorrow that we inform you that Ron Fuller, traveling with his brother Robert back to Dothan, was involved in an automobile accident in Montgomery. Ron, who believed seatbelts were for "pussies and dickgrabbers" and was staggeringly drunk following the aforementioned incident, was launched from his Cutlass Supreme 47 feet over a bridge and into the Alabama River where he was mutilated by the paddle wheel of a riverboat. Robert and an unnamed but reportedly very hansum and allsum occupant of the vehicle the Fullers hit are in critical condition at Jackson Hospital. Continental will be temporarily ceasing operations until the damage from these two incidents can be assessed. Fans who have already purchased tickets to our upcoming events can go fuck themselves.
